Mavericks Friday Night Vault Series 2016 Final Report.

The Mavericks Friday Night Vault Series is a series of pole vault tutorials and competitions held at La Costa Canyon High School in Carlsbad, CA. The tutorials and competitions take place every Friday in July. This year, we were fortunate enough to have five Fridays.

37 vaulters, whose ages ranged from 13 to 64, participated throughout the series. The highest vault, 16 feet (4.88m), came from our very own Kyle Brown who now holds the single vault record for the event. Coincidentally, the youngest vaulter, Garrett Brown; age 13, is Kyle Brown's baby brother. Garrett jump a new personal record of 7 feet 6 inches (2.28m). The oldest vaulter, Kenneth L. St. Cyr; age 64, jumped 8 feet 6 inches (2.59m).

Let's not forget, this is a series. To win this series, a vaulter must have the highest accumulation of vaults across the five days. This year, with a combined height total of 47 feet 6 inches (14.5m) the winner and new Mavericks Friday Night Vault Series Champion is----- David Bly, 37 year old pole vault coach from Torrey Pines High School.

David managed to squeak out a 6 inch victory over his own athlete and graduate of Torrey Pines High School, 19 year old Sandris Eglitis. Sandris, on the last day of the competition, pulled off a stunning personal record of 14 feet 6 inches (4.42m). He hit the bar with every part of his body and the bar stayed on the pegs. But it wasn't enough to take down his coach. Sometimes, the student becomes the teacher and the teacher becomes the student. Not this time. The teacher is still the teacher.

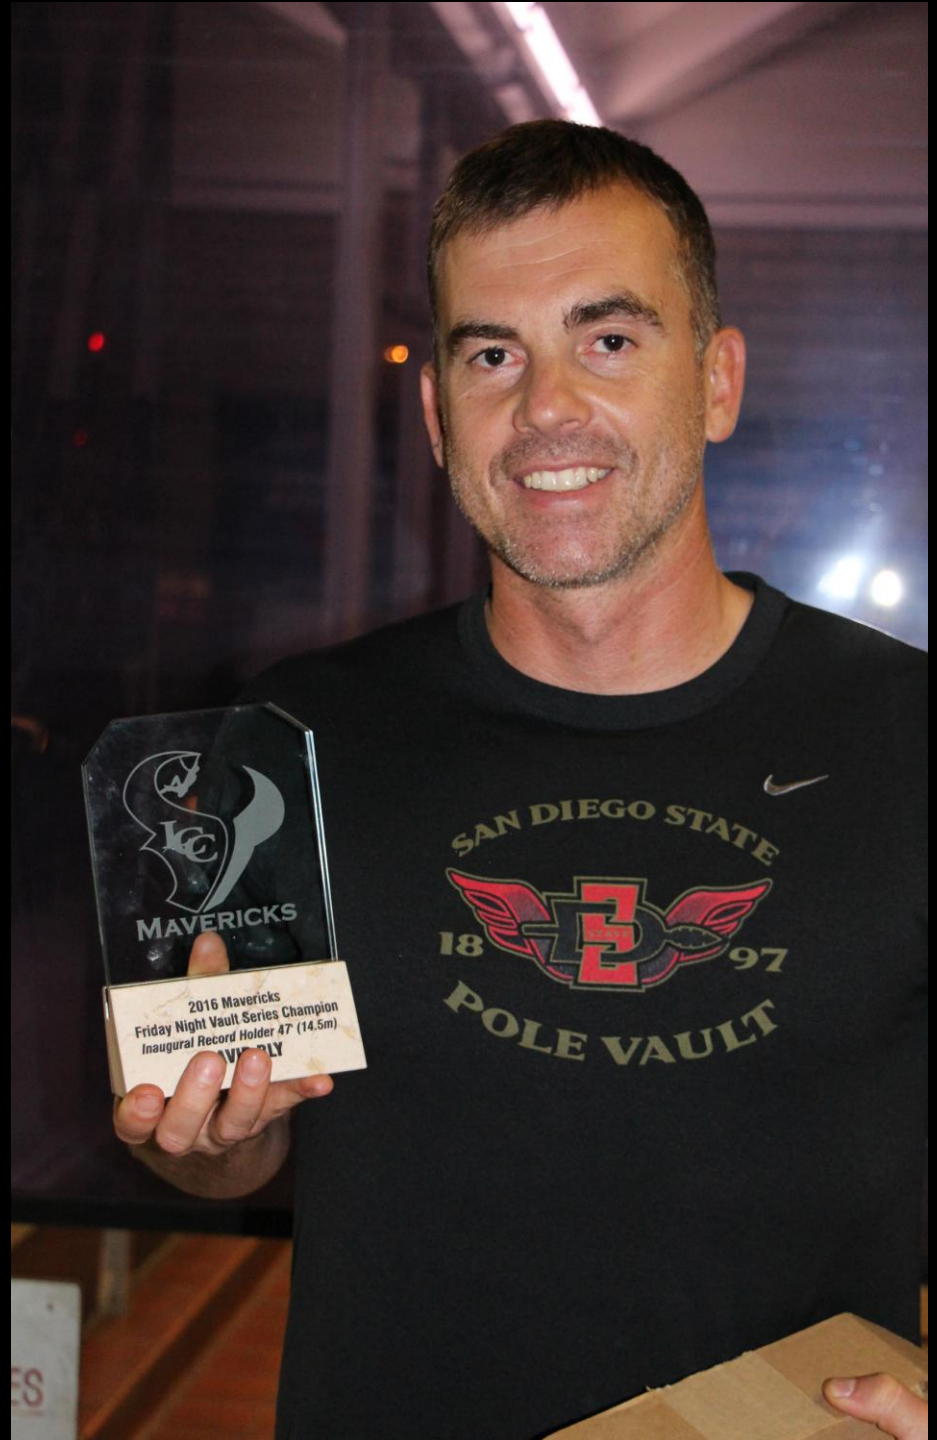

Congratulations David Bly, on becoming the first Mavericks Friday Night Vault Series Champion.

From La Costa Canyon High School Track & Field
To all the participants, volunteers and spectators,

Thank you for making the series a success.
